

Invocation

We meet to serve our community and endeavour to be worthy custodians of all that has been entrusted to us;
Let us be concerned only for what will promote good government;

May we bring to our Council Chamber minds that think and hearts that feel so that in our deliberations we may display imagination, wisdom and courage and the will to do our work for the good of all.

